

The Arizona government is imposing its budgetary choices on the backs of workers, citing necessity. But austerity is not inevitable: other choices are possible—we refuse to pay for their policies!

There's money for everything, but not for us

Annualizing work hours means profits for them—and for us, 50-hour workweeks or 12-hour workdays whenever they decide. Our lives are not at their disposal!

Flexibility for them, job insecurity for us

Behind the pension penalty, there are thousands of workers who will be penalized and left impoverished—especially women!

After a lifetime of work, what we demand is respect, not punishment.

Our pensions are worth more than their profits - NO TO PENALTIES!
